

Growing the Humber (2)

Fast Form were awarded funding to support a move to new premises with extended manufacturing and production space in order to efficiently deliver a contract with Transport For London contract to support the excavation and casting of concrete in the bases of tunnels in the London underground.

Conrac was awarded grant funding to undertake a complete infrastructure refresh to develop facilities to a point where the company could offer hosting as an additional IT service.

